

DEVAMATHA CMI PUBLIC SCHOOL
PERIODIC TEST I 2017 - 2018
ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

Std.V

PART A - SCIENCE

Time : 90mts
Marks : 30

- I. Fill in the blanks with suitable words: ($\frac{1}{2} \times 6=3$)
1. The animals that are awake at night can see things only in _____.
 2. Digestion is followed by a process called _____.
 3. The medicine used to treat snake bite is called _____.
 4. The ants recognise other ants by the smell of a chemical secretion called _____.
 5. Snakes do not have _____.
 6. The process of digestion is completed is the _____.
- II Name the following: ($\frac{1}{2} \times 6=3$)
1. A bird which has eyes in front of its head.
 2. The digestive juices produced by the liver.
 3. The study of snakes.
 4. The sac like organ with strong muscular walls.
 5. Protected forest areas by the government.
 6. The people who play the been and make snakes dance.
- III Give scientific reasons in three or four sentences each: ($2 \times 2=4$)
1. Birds move their neck often.
 2. Snakes are considered as farmer's friend.
- IV Answer the following questions in two or three sentences each: ($1\frac{1}{2} \times 2=3$)
1. Why are human beings considered as a threat to animals?
 2. What are deficiency diseases? Give two examples.
- V Draw the flow chart representing the process of digestion. (2)

PART II - SOCIAL STUDIES

- I Fill in the blanks with suitable words : ($\frac{1}{2} \times 4 = 2$)
1. The Mt. Everest is called _____ in Nepal

2. _____ sultans ruled Golconda from 1518 - 1687.
3. _____ is a cold desert, gets very little rainfall.
4. The outer wall of the fort has _____ bastions.

II Name the following: (½ x 4=2)

1. A place where historical documents are kept.
2. The capital of Nagaland.
3. A group of tribal people who live on the mountain.
4. The fifth woman in the world to climb the Mt. Everest.

III Give reason for the following statements: (1x 2=2)

1. We should not scribble or write our names on the wall of a historical monument.
2. We should carry a whistle during mountaineering.

IV Answer the following questions in three or four sentences each: (2x 3=6)

1. In mountains how do people keep warm in tents?
2. What are the difficulties faced by the mountaineers?
3. Why was it difficult to attack Golconda fort?

V Answer the following question. (3)

1. What are bastions? How were they useful?